

Canberra Institute of Technology

The Canberra Institute of Technology (CIT) is the largest vocational education and training provider in the Australian Capital Territory.

Automotive Electrical Technology

The Automotive Electrical Technology course at CIT covers the skills and knowledge required to diagnose, service and repair automotive electrical and electronic systems and components.

Course Details

- Duration: 1 year
- Delivery: On-campus
- Qualification: Certificate III in Automotive Electrical Technology
- Career Outcomes: Automotive Electrician, Auto Electrical Technician

Course Content

- Electrical and electronic systems diagnosis and repair
- Battery, starting and charging system service and repair
- Lighting, instrumentation and wiring system service and repair
- Advanced electrical and electronic system diagnosis and repair

]]>